

Rakino Island Ferry Service

Changes to Dangerous Goods and Additional Luggage Fares

Dear Passengers,

From 1st July 2019 there will be two changes to the Rakino Island Fare Schedule:

- Dangerous Goods will no longer be charged for
- Additional Luggage tickets will increase from $7 to $10 per item one way

Dangerous Goods

If you have any fuel, flammable liquids, batteries, gas bottles, or fuel-powered tools, please let your crew know and stow them as directed. It is a legal requirement that all dangerous goods are declared to the vessel's Master, and they are carried solely at the Master's discretion.

Empty fuel and gas containers are still classified as a dangerous good and need to be treated as such.

All dangerous goods must be carried in the correct containers for the fuel/gas, and be marked with substance identification. Gas cylinders can be no larger than 9kg, petrol/diesel containers no larger than 20L. Batteries need to have terminals taped/covered up and weigh less than 23kg.

For large items, we recommend using the Sealink or Facilitator barge transport options listed below.

Please be aware that there is only a limited volume of dangerous goods that can be carried on each vessel. Any dangerous goods in excess of this volume will be left at wharf.

Luggage

We are a passenger ferry service and space is at a premium on board. Please ensure you are familiar with our generous luggage allowances: each passenger may have a carry on and a suitcase or equivalent (in total approximately 3 banana boxes worth). At the Skipper's discretion, additional items may be carried when space is available and a fee will be charged. See www.belaire.co.nz for our full luggage policy requirements.

Our vessels are surveyed and licenced as passenger vessels; we are not surveyed to carry freight. This means we are unable to carry unaccompanied luggage or oversize items. We offer a $25 'Delivery Fare' for people to accompany their luggage to the island before returning to Auckland immediately on the same service. Alternatively, consider asking another passenger at the wharf to take responsibility for your item during the trip and handing it over on arrival.

For large, bulky or heavy items please use SEALINK (0800 732 546) or the Facilitator barge (0211 666 136)

For security reasons please do not leave luggage unattended on the pontoons or around the downtown ferry terminal areas.

If you have any queries relating to the above changes, please contact our office on 09 416 6344

Kind Regards
Belaire Ferries
